

Want to try something new?

Want to invest in yourself?

Want to work with colleagues from around the UK, and learn from each other?

EMLeaders Communities of Practices (CoPs)

The EMLeaders Programme is looking to create and support a Community of Practice (COP) in the coming months focused on embedding leadership learning across Emergency Departments in the UK.

The EMLeaders CoPs will provide people with an opportunity to develop their own leadership and facilitation skills; and to share their skills knowledge/ abilities with each other, as well work with their local EMLeaders School Faculty teams.

The aim is to increase the skills and knowledge within regions to support leadership learning on the shopfloor across the multi-disciplinary team.

We are seeking applications from ACPs, EMSAS, ST6 trainees and consultant level.

You will receive:

Those within the cohort will receive training and development to support them so that by the end they will:

1. Have a sound understand of the aims and objectives of the EM leaders programme, understands how leadership fits into the relevant Curriculum and how they can develop these skills in the workplace.
2. Be leadership champions and role models by having a consistent 'leadership language' and behaviours from which the multidisciplinary clinical workforce in the ED can learn from.
3. Feel able to confidently work on the shop floor through the implementation of leadership training.

Communities of Practice - Dates

COP One: 23 November 2022, 31 January and 07 March 2023

COP Two: 29 November 2022, 15 February and 22 March 2023
