

Moving healthcare forward in the ED: Lessons and learning from refugee and inclusion health

Date: Thursday 9 November 2023
RCEM accredited for 5-CPD points

9:30 - 10:00	Registration and refreshments
Session 1: Definitions and overview
10:00 - 10:30	What is inclusion health? Dr Ines Campos-Matos, Consultant Epidemiologist and Deputy Director for Inclusion Health, Office for Health Improvement and Disparities
10:30 - 11:00	Forced migration: An international humanitarian perspective Dr Mina Naguib, Senior Clinical Fellow in EM, Manchester Royal Infirmary and EM Doctor, Médecins Sans Frontières
11:00 - 11:15	Contemporary challenges from a global and national perspective Discussion and Q&A
11:15 - 11:30	Refreshment break
Session 2: Refugee and inclusion health
11:30 - 12:00	Principles, policies and approaches within the NHS Ms Anna Miller, Head of Policy and Advocacy, Doctors of the World
12:00 - 12:30	Understanding the legal contexts and processes for migrants in the UK Ms Theresa Schleicher, Casework Manager, Medical Justice
12:30 - 12:45	Reflections on impact on communities and emergency departments in the UK Discussion and Q&A
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch
Session 3: Care specifics
13:30 - 14:00	Acute physical and mental health assessments Dr Elizabeth Blomfield, GP, Asylum and Refugee Services, Health Inclusion Team and GP, Emergency Department, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, Ms Victoria Bradley, Senior Community Nurse Specialist and Ms Layla Fraser, Community Nurse Specialist, Asylum and Refugee Services, Health Inclusion Team, Guys & St Thomas' NHS Trust
14:00 - 14:30	Trauma informed practice and opportunities for integrated care Dr Aisha Malik, GP, B-Me Health Project
14:30 - 14:45	Considerations on how to improve practice Discussion and Q&A
14:45 - 15:00	Refreshment break
Session 4: Reflections, experience and opportunities
15:00 - 15:15	The Postgraduate Fellowship in Migrant and Refugee Health: Bangladesh Dr Najeeb Rahman, EM Consultant, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
15:15 - 15:30	Trainee involvement in health inclusion Dr Hooi-Ling Harrison, EM Consultant and Dr Hazel Hall, EM Specialist Trainee, King's College Hospital, London
15:30 - 16:15	Group discussion on opportunities and actions and how to personally and professionally develop and apply skills in this sector
16:15 - 16:30	Summary and closing remarks
16:30	Close of day