Global Volunteer Opportunity: Advert for Consultant Emergency Medicine Doctor

RCEM have recently received 2 grants to help develop PG training in Uganda and Ghana and our local partners and the Ministry of Health have backed calls for Consultants from RCEM to join the programmes to support plans for their development.

Are you an experienced and dedicated Emergency Medicine Consultant seeking a unique international opportunity? The Royal College of Emergency Medicine (RCEM) is offering an exciting position for Consultant Emergency Medicine Doctors to contribute to RCEM funded programs aimed at enhancing Emergency Medicine education, fostering bi-directional learning, and capacity building, particularly in low- and middle-income countries (LMICs).

Position: Consultant Emergency Medicine Doctor

Location: Various locations including LMICs such as Uganda, Ghana, and more

Duration: Minimum one month (extendable)

Funding: RCEM International Program

Role Overview:

As a Consultant Emergency Medicine Doctor, you will play a crucial role in developing and implementing educational strategies to improve Emergency Medicine services, primarily in LMICs. Collaborating with local EM faculty, you will identify key areas for development and implement effective educational initiatives, fostering bi-directional learning.

Key Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with local EM faculty to assess educational needs and priorities, particularly in areas of training, research and exams.
- Support the delivery of educational programs focusing on critical aspects of Emergency Medicine, with a focus on addressing local challenges.
- Provide mentorship and training to local healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses, and allied health staff.
- Contribute to the development of leadership programmes.
- Facilitate workshops, seminars, and lectures to enhance clinical skills and knowledge.
- Engage with local stakeholders to ensure sustainability and long-term impact of educational initiatives, fostering bi-directional learning.

Requirements:

- Medical degree and Fellowship of the Royal College of Emergency Medicine (FRCEM) or equivalent qualification.
- Minimum of 3-5 years of experience as a Consultant in Emergency Medicine.
- Demonstrated expertise in medical education
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Flexibility and adaptability to work in diverse cultural environments, particularly in LMICs.
