

Paediatric Pearls and Pitfalls

Date: Wednesday 1 May 2024

RCEM accredited for 7-CPD points

08:30 - 08:50	Join the virtual platform
	Introduction
08:50 - 08:55	Dr Mohamed Ashraf, ST7, Wexham Park Hospital, NHS Frimley Health Foundation Trust Dr Joshua Lyon, Registrar in Paediatric Emergency Medicine, Stoke Mandeville Hospital
Session 1: How many of these have you seen?
08:55 - 09:15	ECGs for kids - what do we need to know and why? Dr Anna McCorquodale Consultant Paediatrician from The Princess Alexandra Hospital, Harlow
09:15 - 09:35	Paediatric rashes Dr Krishna Murthy, PEM and Adult Consultant, Royal Infirmary Edinburgh and Royal Hospital for Children and Young People
09:35 - 09:55	The wheezing child Dr Anastasia Alcock, PEM Consultant, Evelina Hospital, Lecturer at King's College London
09:55 - 10:10	Carpe diem - does the diagnosis fit? Dr Michelle Jacobs, PEM Consultant, ED clinical lead for paed ED, London North West University Healthcare NHS Trust
10:10 - 10:25	Panel discussion and Q&A
10:25 - 10:45	Break
Session 2: How do you deal with this?
10:45 - 11:05	Risk and uncertainty Dr Dan Magnus, Consultant Lecturer in Global Health, PEM Consultant, Bristol Royal Hospital for Children
11:05 - 11:25	Not just little decision making Professor Damian Roland, Head of Service, Children's Emergency Department, University Hospital of Leicester
11:25 - 11:45	The importance of Safety Netting Advice Dr Emily Cadman, Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine at St Mary's- Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
11:45 - 12:00	Panel discussion and Q&A
12:00 - 12:45	Lunch
Session 3: Back with a bang – much ado about trauma!
12:45 - 13:10	Analgesia and sedation in the PED Dr Elizabeth Herrievan, Consultant in Emergency Medicine, Sheffield Children's Hospital
13:10 - 13:30	A review of the TARN data surrounding paediatric trauma Mr Ross Fisher, Consultant Paediatric Surgeon, Sheffield Children's Hospital
13:30 - 13:50	Education strategies in paediatric trauma – imaging modalities Dr Matthew Edwards, Major Trauma, PEM and Adult Consultant, King's College Hospital, London
13:50 - 14:05	An update from the literature on fracture management in children Dr Daniel Perry, NIHR Research Professor at Alder Hey Hospital, Liverpool
14:05 - 14:20	Panel discussion and Q&A

14:20 - 14:30	Break
Session 4: The important but forgotten
14:30 - 15:00	Using HEEADSSS in the ED Dr David James, Consultant Paediatric Emergency Medicine & HEEADSSS app Founder
15:00 - 15:15	The benefits of social prescribing in the PED Dr Daniel Hayes, Senior Research Fellow - Social Biobehavioural Research Group, Research Department of Behavioural Science and Health University College, London
15:15 - 15:25	The role of an A&E navigator and what your department can do to be better! Mr Matthew Guest, Senior A and E Navigator, Leeds Teaching Hospitals Trust
15:25 - 15:45	Safeguarding Children in the Emergency Department Dr Anna Rennie, PEM Consultant, Salford Royal, Safeguarding Lead
15:45 - 16:00	Panel discussion and Q&A
16:00 - 16:30	The role of infections in causing or contributing to childhood deaths- A study from the National Child Mortality Database Professor Peter Fleming, Emeritus Professor of Infant Health and Developmental Physiology, Centre for Academic Child Health, University of Bristol
16:30 - 16:40	Summary and close
16:40	Close