

Change begins with me: EDI study day

Date: Thursday 23 May 2024

RCEM accredited for 5-CPD points

9:45 - 10:00	Join the virtual event platform
10:00 - 10:15	Welcome and introduction Dr Sivanthi Sivanadarajah, Stockport NHS Foundation Trust and RCEM EDI Committee, Dr David Chung, NHS Ayrshire and Arran and RCEM EDI Committee, and Dr Kirsty Challen, Lancashire Teaching Hospitals and RCEM Gender Equity Committee
10:15 - 10:45	The history of race, racism and medicine - I can't breathe Dr Rita Das, NHS Ayrshire and Arran and St Mary's Major Trauma Centre
10:45 - 11:15	Stereotype threat: A self-fulfilling prophecy? Dr David Chung
11:15 - 11:30	Refreshment break
11:30 - 12:00	Allyship and advocacy - Poor and privileged? Dr Sivanthi Sivanadarajah
12:00 - 12:30	The IMG perspective - Do induction programmes work? Dr Elena Craescu, University Hospitals Birmingham
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch
13:15 - 13:45	Am I a racist? Dr Tom Bannister, Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust
13:45 - 14:15	Transgender health - from pilots to squadrons: new clinics in the NHS Dr Christine Mimmagh
14:15 - 14:45	Not so abled to dis(en)abled: Experiential top tips Dr Cieran McKiernan, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow
14:45 - 15:00	Refreshment break
15:00 - 15:30	Neurodiversity - It's not just a missing piece in a jigsaw Mrs April McKay, Blackpool Teaching Hospital
15:30 - 16:00	If I were a boy: The persistent sore of gender bias Dr Kirsty Challen
16:00 - 16:30	Q&A, discussion and closing remarks Dr Sivanthi Sivanadarajah, Dr David Chung and Dr Kirsty Challen
16:30	Close of day