

GreenED: Environmental sustainability in the ED

Date: Tuesday 09 July

RCEM accredited for 6-CPD points

09:15 - 09:30	Join the virtual platform
09:30 - 09:40	Introduction Dr Sandy Robertson, Victoria Hospital, NHS Fife and RCEM Environment Special Interest Group
09:40 - 10:30	The Climate Change Patient Dr Hannah Webb, University Hospitals Sussex NHS Foundation Trust, Dr Helen Wilkins, University Hospital Coventry, Dr Sandy Robertson, Victoria Hospital, NHS Fife and RCEM Environment Special Interest Group
10:30 - 11:00	Panel discussion: Wider structure, Greener NHS, CSH Dr Hannah Webb, Dr Helen Wilkins, Mr Jamie Wardrop, Welsh Government, Dr Sandy Robertson, Mr Richard Smith, UK Health Alliance
11:00 - 11:15	Break
	Case Study: Green ED Dr Sandy Robertson
	Case Study: Reducing Unused Cannulas in the Emergency Department Dr Ciara Irwin, Dr Corinna Chidora Ekebuisi Dr Jack Bellerby, Southmead Hospital, North Bristol NHS Trust
11:15 - 12:30	Case Study: Dimmer Screens for Brighter EDs Dr Abdelaziz Eldardiry and Dr Daisy Stevens, University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust
	Case Study: Northumbria's ECO ED and the role of a Sustainability Fellow Dr George Narayanan Menon, Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
	Case Study: Reducing Coag Testing in the ED Dr James Tullie, James Cook University Hospital
12:30 - 13:00	Panel Discussion All speakers above
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 14:45	Environmental and Labour abuse in medical supply chains to your A&amp;E Dr Mood Bhutta
14:45 - 15:15	How Green is the Green Whistle? Dr Aleksis Martindale, 3 Medical Regiment, Gaza Barracks, Catterick
15:15 - 16:00	Cool, calm and connected: deploying biophilic landscapes to adapt to climate change and enhance wellbeing in a tertiary hospital of northern Australia Dr Mark DeSouza, Royal Darwin Hospital
16:00 - 16:30	Air pollution alerts Ms Karen Exley, London Air Quality and Health Programme Office
16:30	Close of day