

EM educators day

Date: Tuesday 22 October
RCEM accredited for 5-CPD points

09:30 - 10:00	Join the virtual event platform
10:00 - 10:05	Welcome Dr Sarah Edwards, Queen's Medical Centre, University Hospitals of Nottingham
10:05 - 10:30	Update on EM curriculum and challenges of delivering education in EM Dr Russell Duncan, Ninewells Hospital, Dundee and RCEM Training Standards Committee
10:30 - 11:00	Getting started in EM education research Dr Daniel Darbyshire, Lancaster Medical School and Royal Manchester Children's Hospital
11:00 - 11:15	Refreshment break
11:15 - 11:45	RCEMLearning and EM education Dr Sarah Edwards
11:45 - 12:15	Time critical simulations for EM Dr Ffion Davies, Leicester Royal Infirmary
12:15 - 13:00	Lunch
	Top scoring submissions
	Gamified learning: Enhancing medical students' skills in acute care and respiratory OSCEs through game-based medical education Mr Mahdi Sadeghi, King's College London
	Longitudinal simulation: A novel way to educate final year students on acute medical emergencies Dr Carol Wilson, Causeway Hospital, Coleraine
13:00 - 14:00	FGM in the Emergency Department: Using educational interventions to teach the 'mind to know' and the 'eye to see' – a preliminary report of a QI project Dr Olivia Duffy, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London
	Enhancing anaesthetic competencies in the emergency department: innovative training approaches for non-anaesthetists Dr Hannah Wilkin-Crowe, Queen's Medical Centre, Nottingham
	Triangulating educational initiatives to maximise reciprocal learning: The Bristol-SWASFT experience Dr Amanda King, Bristol Children's Hospital
14:00 - 14:30	Teaching how to take risk Dr Nikki Abela, Whiston Hospital, Merseyside
14:30 - 14:45	Refreshment break

14:45 - 15:15	Where is EM education now? Dr Rebecca Yates, Airedale NHS Foundation Trust and EMTA HST Training Standards and Exams Representative
15:15 - 15:45	Education for ACPs and the wider EM MDT Miss Abbie Crawford, University Hospitals Leicester and RCEM ACP Forum
15:45 - 16:15	Gaming for EM education Dr Teresa Chan, Toronto Metropolitan University School of Medicine
16:15 - 16:30	Close and announcement of the winning presentations Dr Sarah Edwards
16:30	Close of day