

Excellence in Minor Injuries Care

Thursday 24 October

RCEM accredited for 5-CPD points

09:45 - 10:00	Join virtual platform
10:00 - 10:25	Panel discussion: Minor Injuries – Why do they matter? Dr Ashish Singal, Dudley NHS Foundation Trust, Dr Katherine Henderson, Guys & St. Thomas NHS Foundation Trust, Dr Maya Navari, Bradford Royal Infirmary, RCEM, Dr Russell Duncan, Ninewells Hospital, RCEM Training Standards Committee, Dr Susan Dorrian, Heartlands Hospital, RCEM West Midlands region
10:25 - 11:20	Burns – Options for pain relief and closure Dr Sarah Bache, Queen Elizabeth Burns Unit
11:20 - 11:40	Break
11:40 - 12:15	Hand Injuries – Anatomy, examination technique and common injury Dr Ashish Singal
12:15 - 13:00	Foot and ankle – Anatomy, examination techniques and common injury Caroline Plant, University Hospitals Coventry and Warwickshire
13:00 - 13:45	Lunch
13:45 - 14:15	Missed Fractures – the patient and NHS cost – NHS resolution guidance Dr Katherine Henderson
14:15 - 15:00	Wrist and elbow – Anatomy, examination techniques and common injury Mr Pantelis Tsantanis, Upper Limb T&O, Consultant, University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
15:00 - 15:20	Break
15:20 - 16:00	Knee – Anatomy, Examination techniques and common injury Dr Ali Al-Sharifi, Dudley NHS Foundation Trust
16:00 - 16:40	Radiology for Minor injury – Reporting radiographer hints and tips Louise Small, University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
16:40	Close of day