

Ketamine sedation in the PED

Date: Friday 31 January 2025

RCEM accredited for 7 CPD points

Venue: Gleeson Lecture Theatre, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, 369 Fulham Road, London, SW10 9NH

08:15 - 08:45	Registration and refreshments
08:45 - 09:15	Ketamine sedation in the PED Dr Charles Stewart, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation trust
09:15 - 09:45	Ketamine pharmacology Dr Devon Anthony, London North West University Healthcare NHS Trust
09:45 - 10:15	The paediatric airway and emergencies Dr Nadia Shad, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust
10:15 - 10:45	Refreshments and networking
10:45 - 12:45	Communication based scenarios - Consent and communication The delegates will split into groups and will take part in four interactive simulation stations centered on obtaining consent. for ketamine sedation. Theses session will help you ensure that patients and parents are aware of the risks and benefits, and the likely experience for the patient. These sessions will also help you prepare for commonly asked questions. Dr Charles Stewart Dr Nadia Shad Dr Devon Anthony Dr Leila Saadi, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
12:45 - 13:45	Lunch
13:45 - 16:30	Ketamine sedation in practice - The practicalities and pitfalls The delegates will split into groups and will engage in interactive simulations to display appropriate use of ketamine. These sessions will address challenges such as human factors, adverse effects of medication and inadequate patient sedation. Dr Charles Stewart Dr Nadia Shad Dr Devon Anthony Dr Jessica Britten-George, Barts Health NHS Trust
16:30 - 17:00	Quiz and closing remarks Dr Charles Stewart and Dr Nadia Shad
17:00	Close of day