

28 April	Track A	Track B
08:45 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 11:15	A1: Keynote sessions
	Welcome remarks
	President's address Dr Ian Higginson
	A day in the life of an EM physician
11:30 - 12:00	Refreshment break
12:00 - 13:15	A2: Free papers	B2: Resus updates: 4 minutes to save a life in fatal anaphylaxis
	Hear the top scoring oral abstracts - an exciting session exploring cutting-edge emergency medicine research with a prize available for the winning presentation.	Anaphylaxis Resuscitation guideline update Dr Andrew Lockey
		Using the NCDM to determine mechanism of death in children who have died of anaphylaxis Dr Tom Roberts
		AMAX4 Simulation Dr Ben McKenzie and Dr Tom Roberts
		Panel Q&A
13:15 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:30	A3: HALO sessions: Resuscitative hysterotomy	B3: Core EM: Recent updates and diagnostic challenges
	An interactive HALO session in which you'll see an expert demonstration of the procedure, discussion of the latest evidence, and an interactive debate that you can get involved with.	Weight loss injections Dr Sri Bellamy
	Dr Stephanie Cowan, Dr Kim Hinshaw, Dr Caroline Leech and Ms Camella Main	Understanding ketamine use disorder Dr Ijeoma Chibuzo and Dr Rebecca McKnight
		Diagnosis and management of PE in the ED Professor Daniel Horner
		Panel Q&A
15:30 - 16:00	Refreshment break
16:00 - 17:15	A4: PEM	B4: Global health grant updates
	PEM cardiac case Dr Hannah Cooper, Dr Tristan Ramcharan and Dr Jake Turner	A survey of vulnerable migrant health services in UK EDs Dr Natasha Matthews
		Incidence, predictors and outcomes of blunt cardiac injury among polytrauma and Isolated blunt chest trauma patients presenting to the ED of a Tertiary Hospital in Tanzania Dr Janet Jebichii Sugut
		End of life care decision making and communication in the ED: A mixed methods study Dr Anita Eseenam Agbeko
	Bubblewrap live: Top PEM papers Dr Victoria Currie	Scaling up the Basic Emergency Care (BEC) Course for nurses in Ethiopia: Facilitators, challenges, and insights from an initial scoping study
		Upskilling and future-proofing human resources for health and enhancing health governance for universal health coverage and better-quality care
17:15 - 18:15	Drinks reception
18:15	Close of Day 1

29 April	Track A	Track B
08:45 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 11:30	A5: David Williams Lecture and Rod Little Prize Papers
	David Williams Lecture Professor Steve Goodacre
	Rod Little Prize Papers
11:30 - 12:00	Refreshment break
12:00 - 13:15	A6: Big three studies	B6: Vulnerable populations and health inequalities
	SWiFT (Study of Whole Blood In Frontline Trauma) study results Professor Jason Smith	Patient focussed sexism in the ED Dr Katie Brill
	CoMiT-ED 1 (Conservative Management in Traumatic Pneumothoraces in the Emergency Department; a Randomised Controlled Trial) study results Dr Edward Carlton	The NHS frail strategy and what it means for older adults in the UK Dr Fiona Wisniacki
	Panel discussion	Towards a social EM Dr Ryan McHenry
13:15 - 14:15	Lunch
14:15 - 15:30	A7: HALO sessions: ECPR	B7: Core EM: Recent updates and diagnostic challenges
	HALO sessions: ECPR An interactive HALO session in which you'll see an expert demonstration of the procedure, discussion of the latest evidence, and an interactive debate that you can get involved with.	Updates in asthma Dr Stephen Fowler
		Updates in headache Dr Fayyaz Ahmed
15:30 - 16:00	Refreshment break
16:00 - 17:15	A8: RCEM grant updates	B8: Environmental impact
	Understanding Psychological Distress And Therapeutic Environment in the Emergency Department (UPDATE-ED) Dr Rajendra Raman	How to turn your ED green: Tips and tricks for getting started Dr Daisy Stevens and Dr Sophie Underdown
	Activation of inflammation and Coagulation after Trauma II (ACIT-II) Professor Daniel Horner	Going for gold: What a gold GreenED looks like Dr George Narayana and Dr Tim Spruell
17:15	Close of Day 2

30 April	Track A	Track B
08:45 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 11:20	A9: David Williams Lecture and Rod Little Prize Papers
	Maurice Ellis Lecture Dr Alison Sanders William Rutherford International Award
11:20 - 11:50	Refreshment break
11:50 - 13:05	A10: HALO sessions: Thoracotomy	B10: Mental health
	An interactive HALO session in which you'll see an expert demonstration of the procedure, discussion of the latest evidence, and an interactive debate that you can get involved with. Dr Arun George, Dr Caroline Leech, Dr Zane Perkins and Dr Richard Steyn	Address adolescent mental health in the ED and strengthen collaboration with external agencies for safer, more effective patient care.
13:05 - 13:50	Lunch
13:50 - 15:40	A11: Trauma	B11: AI and digital transformation
	MAGPIE - Inhaled methoxyflurane (Penthrox®) versus placebo for injury-associated analgesia in children Dr Michael Barrett	Discover how AI is reshaping emergency departments in this exciting session. From clinical decision support to workflow optimisation and future-ready digital innovation.
	Top 10 trauma papers Professor Simon Carley
	Panel Q&A
	Closing remarks	Closing remarks
15:40	Close of conference	