Role Profile:	EMSAS Regional Representative – East of England
Reports to:	EMSAS Chair
Key working relationships:	EMSAS Forum National Chair, EMSAS Forum Representatives, Fellow members of the RCEM Council

EMSAS is seeking Emergency Medicine clinicians to serve as Regional Representative for the East Midlands. This role strengthens communication between local members and the EMSAS Committee, ensuring that regional perspectives, challenges, and priorities are represented in national discussions. The representative promotes engagement, shares updates, and supports the development of EMSAS activity across the UK.

Commitment / Requirements

- Attend EMSAS meetings, usually held online.
- Attend regional board meetings
- Act as a point of contact for EMSAS members in the East Midlands.
- Share updates from EMSAS and RCEM with colleagues in the region.
- Provide regional insight on workforce, training, and service issues.
- Support regional engagement activities where possible.
- No previous committee experience required.
- Must be an EMSAS member working within the region.

Time Commitments

Approximately 1–2 hours per month, with most meetings held online. Occasional travel may be required.

Travel requirements:

- The role is flexible, with remote working arrangements for online meetings and communications.
- Face-to-face meetings, as required by RCEM, will be held at designated locations.

Remuneration and Expenses:

- The role is honorary.
- RCEM will reimburse reasonable expenses for travel to face-to-face meetings and other required attendance.

FAQs

Do I need previous committee experience?

No. Enthusiasm, reliability, and a willingness to represent colleagues are the most important qualities.

How long is the term?

Most EMSAS roles run for 2–3 years.

How much time does the role take?

Typically 1–3 hours per month depending on activity.

Can I apply if I am a trainee, ACP, or SAS doctor?

EMSAS roles are open to all Doctors on a SAS contract, and you will need to be working as a SAS doctor currently to be considered for an EMSAS rep position.

What support will I receive?

You will be supported by the EMSAS Chair, Vice Chair, and RCEM staff team.

What happens after I apply?

Applications are reviewed by the EMSAS leadership team. If several strong applications are received, a shortlisting or selection process may be used.

How to apply

To apply: Please submit a CV and a cover letter up to 400 words in length, outlining your suitability based on the Person Specification and your motivation to the role, to emsas@rcem.ac.uk by 30 April 2026.
