Role Profile:	EMSAS Education Resources Lead
Reports to:	EMSAS Chair
Key working relationships:	EMSAS Forum National Chair, EMSAS Forum Representatives, Fellow members of the RCEM Council

EMSAS is seeking a volunteer to support the development and coordination of educational resources for members. This role helps ensure that EMSAS provides accessible, high quality learning materials aligned with RCEM standards and member needs. The post holder will work with contributors, trainees, and RCEM staff to support the creation, review, and improvement of educational content.

Commitment / Requirements

- Lead or support the creation and review of EMSAS educational materials.
- Work with contributors and RCEM staff to maintain quality and relevance.
- Identify gaps in educational provision and suggest new resource ideas.
- Attend EMSAS meetings to provide updates on educational activity.
- Interest in medical education is essential; prior experience is helpful but not required.
- Ability to collaborate with a range of contributors.
- No previous committee experience required.

Time Commitment

Approximately 2–4 hours per month, depending on project activity. Most meetings are held online.

Travel requirements:

- The role is flexible, with remote working arrangements for online meetings and communications.
- Face-to-face meetings, as required by RCEM, will be held at designated locations.

Remuneration and Expenses:

- The role is honorary.
- RCEM will reimburse reasonable expenses for travel to face-to-face meetings and other required attendance.

FAQs

Do I need previous committee experience?

No. Enthusiasm and a willingness to represent colleagues are the most important qualities.

How long is the term?

Most EMSAS roles run for 2–3 years.

How much time does the role take?

Typically 2–4 hours per month depending on activity.

Can I apply if I am a trainee, ACP, or SAS doctor?

EMSAS roles are open to all Doctors on a SAS contract, and you will need to be working as a SAS doctor currently to be considered for an EMSAS rep position.

What support will I receive?

You will be supported by the EMSAS Chair, Vice Chair, and RCEM staff team.

What happens after I apply?

Applications are reviewed by the EMSAS leadership team. If several strong applications are received, a shortlisting or selection process may be used.

How to apply

To apply: Please submit a CV and a cover letter up to 400 words in length, outlining your suitability based on the Person Specification and your motivation to the role, to emsas@rcem.ac.uk by 30 April 2026.
