EM Educators day

Available until 5 August 2027
RCEM accredited for 5-CPD points

On-demand
Learning that fits around life in EM

Session 1
5 minutes	Welcome and house-keeping Dr Sarah Edwards
25 minutes	Teaching and recognising burnout Dr Alexandra Hellens
25 minutes	When good teaching feels bad: understanding learning cultures across professions Mr Chris White
15 minutes	Panel discussion
Session 2
30 minutes	Imposter syndrome Dr Ffion Davies
30 minutes	Professional identity and why it's important in EM and education Dr Jonathan Guckian
20 minutes	Panel discussion
Session 3
60 minutes	Abstract presentations Resus Ready: Digital Microlearning in the Emergency Department, Dr Umair Qureshi From Bias to Bedside: 10-minute Human Factor Teaching on the shop-floor without the Expert Dr Janki Patel Enhancing Procedural Preparedness:A National Curriculum-Aligned Simulation Strategy for Emergency Medicine Trainees in Scotland, Dr Laura McGregor The Impact of a Dermatology Teaching Series on Medical Students' Confidence in Diagnosing and Managing Chronic and Emergency Dermatological Conditions, Dr Charlotte Rooks
15 minutes	QI and education... why should we care? Dr Rebecca Yates
Session 4
45 minutes	AI and education in EM Dr Sarah Edwards
15 minutes	Panel discussion
15 minutes	Five predictions for emergency medicine education in 2035 Dr Sarah Edwards
15 minutes	Abstract results and closing remarks